

MAN IN HIDING

A C#m
Lost for a reason in a dream I was keepin'
D E
Locked up till the last promise of dawn
A C#M
I found myself hopin' someone must be jokin'
D E
But the punch line took much too long
F#M E
No matter what I tried things just stayed the same
F#m E
No matter who was there, there was no one to blame

A D A D
Chorus: Man in hiding
A D A D
Man in hiding
A
For life

No one to wake me, no one to shake me
No one who even knew a thing
No road to go on, no way to hold on
I lost track of everything
In the morning storm I'd look up at the sky
And the only question on my mind was why (cho.)

Losing wars at midnight in a fight just to be right
In a place where everything seems wrong
Bells were always ringing, I heard the voices singing
But I wouldn't learn the words to the song
I'd roll over and stare into the light
Wondering how can I get out of this tonight (cho.)
